

The Adventurous T-Shirt

Objective

Analyze consumption choices and their environmental and social impacts.

- I donate clothing in good condition
- I choose to repair instead of buying new
- I buy less, but better
- I choose thrift stores whenever possible
- I buy a piece of clothing that I will wear only once
- I throw away a repairable garment
- I never check the condition of the clothes I donate

Interactive Questions (short discussion)

- What is the impact of this action on the environment?
- Does this action encourage overconsumption?
- What would be a more responsible choice?
- Does this action help the community?

 Answers may vary – the important part is the justification.

Key Message

 Reusing and consuming differently reduces our impact.
